

NO DOUBT OF HIS RECOVERY

McBurney Says McKinley Will Be About With in a Few Weeks.

IS MUCH STRONGER

President Asked Dr. Rixey, if He Could Sit Up, This Morning.

SYMPTOMS ALL GOOD

Buffalo, September 10.—Dr. McBurney came out of the Milburn residence at noon and said that the possibility of peritonitis was very remote and predicted that the president would be in fair shape in two or three weeks. McBurney leaves for the east tonight. Hanna goes to Cleveland this afternoon.

Confidence is Growing

The feeling of encouragement over the president which grew stronger yesterday has given way to confident elation. Physicians and others coming from the sick chamber say there is now little doubt that the president will recover. So sanguine is this belief that President Milburn has been given permission to announce that there will be another president's day at the exposition and will be the occasion for thanksgiving for the recovery of the president. A system of electric signals are to be arranged so that at a given signal the bells will be set ringing, whistles blowing and cannon booming all over the United States.

Wants to Sit Up

Dr. Rixey said at noon: "The president asked again to set up this morning. When I demurred he said: 'Oh, I'm stronger, see, I can move more easily.' Then he gave some orders about the closing of his home at Canton and suggested that they prepare to move him to Washington. Besides asking about some state affairs, it will not be possible to move him for three weeks."

Guards for Senator Hanna

Guards are placed at the residence of Harry Hamlin where Mark Hanna is stopping. The senator objected to it but the police would not listen to him. Two patrolmen and one service operative were there all last night and two patrolmen are guarding the house today.

HEAVY HAND ON ANARCHY

If a Conspiracy Can Be Proved the Prisons Will Be Full

Washington, D. C., September 10.—It is believed here that error will soon demoralize the ranks of the anarchists of this country, as everything possible will be done to punish to the full extent of the law every anarchist who has been in the slightest way responsible for the attempted assassination of President McKinley.

The heavy hand of Uncle Sam will be laid upon them, and if it is possible to prove a conspiracy the prisons of this country will be full to overflowing with the persons whose chief aim in life is to overthrow organized governments and to assassinate the representatives of the people and the rulers of foreign nations.

Emma Goldman, who is by the confession of Czolgosz responsible for the act of the Buffalo assassin, will in all probability, be held as an accessory to the crime which he committed.

M'KINLEY JOKES WITH MANN

Talks in Cheerful Mood to Surgeon Who Performed Operation

Buffalo, New York, September 10.—Members of the cabinet told today how the president chatted with Dr. Mann.

"You performed the operation on me, didn't you doctor?" inquired the president.

"I did," replied Dr. Mann, "and I hope with all my heart it will be a success."

"Success," replied the president, "Why, I'll be down to breakfast in a day or so."

There are many stories of a similar character showing the president's cheerfulness and pluck.

MRS. MC KINLEY IS HOPEFUL

Trusts in God and Believes Her Husband Will Recover

Buffalo, Sept. 10.—"We trust in God and believe Mr. McKinley is going to recover speedily," said Mrs. McKinley this afternoon. "I know he has the best medical attendance that can be obtained and I am perfectly satisfied that these doctors are handling the case splendidly."

"It is a great pleasure to know the deep interest and sympathy of the American people. The case is progressing so favorably that we are all very happy."

HOW TO DEAL WITH ANARCHY

London Newspapers Discuss Attempt on Life of McKinley

London, September 10.—Nearly every newspaper this morning brings forward the question of how to deal with the anarchist movement. The act of Czolgosz is generally regarded as the deliberate work of an organization which exists in every country to strike terror by a system of murder. The worst guilt is not that of the actual assassin. It lies with the creators of the perverse propaganda, who never dream of handling a weapon more dangerous than the pen or venture into any position more perilous than the lecture platform.

Such deeds as the dastardly crime at Buffalo prove that no consideration of any sort should be extended to the so-called anarchist clubs. Even if Czolgosz planned the attack on the president on his own personal initiative, his action exemplified the tendency of anarchist teaching throughout he civilized world.

HANNA THANKS "BIG JIM"

Negro Who Sprang Upon Assassin the Guest of Buffalo Club

Buffalo, New York, September 10.—James Benjamin Parker, or "Big Jim" Parker, as he is generally called, the negro who jumped on the president's assailant on last Friday and would have killed him had he not been pulled off, received a special invitation from Mr. Hanna to come and see him.

The negro has been a lion ever since last Friday. He has sold the buttons of his coat and waistcoat for sums ranging from $5 to $20 apiece, and finally parted with all of the clothing he wore during the struggle, to visitors who wanted them as souvenirs.

It was not until Saturday afternoon, when he had nothing else left, that he had time to get his photographs taken. These went off like hot cakes and the photographer expects to work his assistants from now on to the close of the show printing pictures.

He told his story to Mr. Hanna, concluding: "And if they had not pulled me off I'd have saved the police and soldiers and everybody else a mighty big sight of trouble."

CZOLGOSZ DECLARED SANE

Examination Made to Protect Prosecuting Evidence

Buffalo, New York, September 10.—Czolgosz was pronounced sane by the physicians who examined him late this afternoon at the request of the district attorney and in his presence. It is a peculiarity of this crime and criminal that the suggestion of insanity never has been taken seriously by those familiar with the man and the deed. "For protection" of the prosecuting evidence the district attorney deemed it well to have an examination by experts made today.

It is announced that Governor Odell, when he arrives here today will call an extraordinary session of the grand jury for Erie county to indict Czolgosz for attempted murder, and that Henry A. Childs, one of the supreme court judges for the Eighth district, is to be designated by Gov. Odell to preside at the trial. The full penalty on conviction is ten years in state prison.

FEDERAL COURTS MAY ACT

Efforts Being Made to Prove Czolgosz in a Conspiracy

Washington, D. C., September 10.—The evidences of a conspiracy of anarchists to assassinate the president are developing through the investigations of the secret service bureau and the police of the various cities, and in all probability the assassin and his confederates will be tried in the federal courts. The department of justice is satisfied that there is a federal law to punish such a conspiracy, though there is not for the punishment of an ordinary murder.

The Art League will hold their annual business meeting and election of officers on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Walter Helms. The league will study the history and art of Venice this season. The university art class of the league will meet every other Thursday and will study the history technique of art. The class will have about ninety members.

WILL USE LIGHT COLORED STONE; PLANS FOR NEW POST OFFICE ARE OUT

Janesville Building, Under Supervision of Congressman Cooper, Will Be a New and Original Idea—Design Unique—An Artistic Structure.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 10.—Supervising Architect Taylor of the treasury department has practically completed the plans for the United States building to be erected at Janesville. A picture of this proposed structure shows it to be a new and original idea in postoffice buildings for cities of the smaller size and it is probable that a plan similar to this, with such modifications as may be required, will be adopted by the department for several of the smaller cities throughout the country where government buildings are to be erected at a cost of from $50,000 to $100,000.

A Unique Design

The design of the Janesville building is unique and interesting. Although Representative Cooper of the First district is not an architect, he is well-known as a gentleman of refined tastes and a thorough appreciation of excellence in art, as well as in literature and music.

It is to Mr. Cooper more than to any other one influence that credit is due not only for securing to Janesville this elegant public building, but also to the fact that the architectural design of the building will comport with the dignity and elegance which belongs to a building in a city where shall be represented the interests of the general government.

Representative Cooper was determined that the plans for a public building in Janesville should not only be new and original, so far as possible, but that there should be on this building no towers or other features which are generally adopted in municipal buildings, and also in recent years, in many of the buildings constructed by the federal government. When congress passed the bill authorizing the erection of a public library at Janesville Representative Cooper called on Supervising Architect J. Knox Taylor to ask that something nice be done for Janesville.

An Artistic Structure

"We want something artistic, substantial and elegant," said Mr. Cooper and we want a building that may easily be distinguished from a public library, museum, a church or any public or private building that may now or hereafter be constructed in the city. Give us something with pillars rather than towers or gingerbread work, such as too often mark our public buildings." Mr. J. Knox Taylor promised to do his best.

An examination was made by the architect and the First district representative of plans for various small public buildings throughout the country, including the mints and custom houses, and the design for the Janesville building is made from a combination of these, which, it is believed, will give a neat and substantial structure, embodying distinguishing features that are peculiarly appropriate to a building erected by the United States government.

Combination of Styles

The building is to be a combination of the classical and renaissance styles of architecture, with the latter predominating, presenting an effect altogether new and novel in buildings of this class. It is to be erected at the corner of Franklin and Dodge streets, the main front to be on Franklin street.

It will be 52 by 85 feet front, and will be constructed of light colored stone, with possibly gray brick in some of the plain wall surfaces. The first floor will be devoted entirely to the use of the postoffice, the public lobby to be finished handsomely in marble, with mosaic floors.

The second story is designed for the use of such small government bureaus that may hereafter be located in Janesville. In the basement will be provided quarters for the carriers and also the heating apparatus of the building.

Congress appropriated for this building $75,000. This includes the cost of the site.

ALL IS NOW LEFT WITH SHAFFER; STRIKE OUTLOOK LOOKS OMINOUS

President Schwab Refuses to Grant Another Conference on the Ground That There Is No Necessity for It—Shaffer Is Hopeful.

Pittsburg, Sept. 10.—Falling to get another conference with President Schwab of the United States Steel Corporation and thinking the tide has turned in the strikers' favor, the general executive board of the Amalgamated Association, which has been in session here, adjourned last evening. The matter of arranging a conference for a settlement of the strike was left in the hands of President Shaffer. This means that the strike will go on for the remainder of this month at least unless President Schwab agrees to meet President Shaffer and offer better terms of settlement. The board has been in session here since Friday morning. Most of the time was spent in trying to get another conference with President Schwab in the hope of securing better terms than those offered. The latter were that the combines would sign the scale for all mills that were union up to July 1, with the exception of those that have been opened with non-union men. This meant the loss of the Star plant at Pittsburg, the Crescent mills in Cleveland, the Irondale and Demmer tinplate mills, the Hyde Park, Canal Dover and Cambridge sheet mills. All of these were under amalgamated control

SUPREME COURT HAS ADJOURNED

First, Fixes on October 22 as Date for Taking Up the Gates County Case.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 10.—(Special.)—The suit which involves the validity of the law passed by the legislature last winter creating Gates county, out of the north part of Chippewa county will be taken up by the supreme court on October 22, the court today granting a motion to advance it for argument to the foot of the third assignment. The court adjourned until September 24.

Mrs. E. H. Pattison and her daughters, Helen and Emily, were pleasantly surprised Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Pattison's mother, Mrs. Craven. Mrs. Pattison returns in a short time to her home in Minneapolis after a pleasant visit with Janesville friends.

EMMA GOLDMAN HAS BEEN CAPTURED

Notorious Woman Anarchist Complicated in McKinley Shooting, Under Arrest in Chicago.

Chicago, September 10.—Emma Goldman, for whom every police officer throughout the nation has been looking since the attempted assassination of President McKinley, was arrested here this morning.

The woman first denied that she was Emma Goldman but when confronted by officers who knew her, smilingly confessed she was the woman wanted. She said she came from St. Louis on Sunday night and had been in the house where she was arrested since her arrival. She denied that she knew Czolgosz and said that he shot McKinley without instigation and was sure there was no plot implicating anybody else.

"He certainly was not prompted by me," she said. Also she was sure that none of the anarchists arrested here on Saturday and anything to do with the foolish act. "What he did was foolish and I am sorry that it happened. Our anarchist advocates absence of violence and that is the very thing that we are trying to get out people to quit. We hope to reform the world through the advancement of intelligence and not through the use of bullets."

FORCE ANARCHISTS OUT OF COUNTRY

Senator Julius Roehr of Milwaukee, Will Introduce a Bill in the Next Legislature.

Milwaukee, September 10.—Senator Julius E. Roehr will introduce a bill in the next session of the legislature to exclude from the state all anarchists and all those engaged in teaching the hateful doctrines of lawlessness. He said last night that he believed that that would be the most effective way to deal with the fanatical devotees of a creed so directly contrary to the country's institutions.

"I believe," he said, "that the best way to fight anarchy, anarchists and anarchism is to make this class keep out of the state. Every state ought to pass state laws, and then there would be no preaching of lawlessness in the country. I intend to introduce such a measure at the next session of the legislature unless before that time there are better plans devised for fighting anarchy and anarchism. It is time that this country became aroused to action. There is nothing in the way of the passing of laws making assaults upon those in authority the most serious crimes under the law, and the penalties therefore the most severe. This could be done by state enactment or by a national law, and it could be made treason by an amendment to the constitution, but that would take a long time. In my opinion the most effective way to deal with anarchists is to force them out of the country and to keep them out."

Annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic is in Session Today.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 10.—The thirty-fifth annual encampment of the G. A. R. began here today and the city was a blaze of glory, a crystallization of all the living memories to which only a fraction of the present population is personally familiar. The aged feet which once trod the bloody fields of Shiloh, of Gettysburg, and of a hundred other hard-fought battles surged around Monumental square, located in the business heart of the city, with slow and steady tread.

There is no longer any doubt as to the effect of the attempted assassination of the president upon the present gathering. It has stirred the patriotism of the people to the utmost recesses of their hearts' emotion and veterans and their friends are coming to rejoice or sorrow as the will of Providence may dictate.

Mark Cummings Doing Well

The many local friends of Mark Cummings, formerly superintendent of the Janesville Street Railway company, will be pleased to learn that he has prospered greatly since leaving this city. He is now superintendent of construction for the Westing House Manufacturing company with headquarters at London, a position which carries with it a large competence in the way of salary.

RICH PRIZES AT THE STATE FAIR

It Presents a Notable Display of Wisconsin Farm Products

FAIR OPENS TODAY

All the Departments, Especially in Dairy and Stock, Are Well Filled.

FINE RACES—PROGRAM

Milwaukee, Sep 10.—The state fair opened today, with every prospect of fair weather. The state board of agriculture offers $16,000 in premiums and the barns are running over with exhibits and there is a program that for continuous and rational entertainment has never been equaled in this part of the country.

The gates were opened to the public at 7:30 o'clock this morning. The awarding of premiums in all departments except the pigeon department began at nine o'clock and will be continuous until five o'clock. The races on the main track begin at two o'clock. Aerial performances in front of the grand stand will be given by the Bickett family and will take place between the races. At five o'clock a balloon ascension by the Belmont sisters will take place.

Board of Agriculture Meets

A meeting of the state board of agriculture was held last evening at the Administration building. Reports received from the various departments showed that the exhibits were in readiness.

Professor Farrington of the state dairy school was in the dairy building today arranging the apparatus by which butter and cheese are to be made every morning and afternoon during the fair. The exhibit is an interesting one, containing many branches. One consists of a series of bottles which show the constituent parts of milk, butter and cheese. Professor Farrington's conversation is full of Wisconsin dairy statistics, and the magnitude of the state dairy interests are brought home to any one who is interested in the business.

One Million Cows

"In 160,000 farms in Wisconsin," said he, "1,000,000 cows are kept. These cows supply milk to 1,000 creameries and 1,000 cheese factories, valued at $7,000,000. One-fourth of the total butter product is dairy butter, and three-fourths is creamery. One fourth the cheese made is Swiss brick and Limburger, and three-fourths is cheddar cheese. Wisconsin produced over 60,000,000 pounds of cheese in 1899, more than one-fourth of the entire cheese product of the United States. Shipments of Swiss brick and Limburger cheese from Green county in 1899 reached over 12,000,000 pounds which is about one-half the total annual production of these cheeses in the state.

Over 1,000 Fowls on Grounds

The poultry department will be larger this year than previously, more than 1,000 fowls being on exhibition. There are thirty-five competitors as last year, but all are entering much larger exhibits than ever before. Among the largest entries are those of E. G. Roberts of Fort Atkinson.

Good County Exhibits

In the county exhibits the northern counties have decidedly the advantage. They not only had a better crop but they are given 600 points handicap over the southern counties on account of mileage. Walworth and Waukesha are the only southern counties represented, and their strong point is corn. Douglas and Flat lead the northern counties on the size of their display, the strong point of the northern district being the potato crop.

NO STRINGENCY IN THE MONEY MARKET

Washington, September 10.—Secretary of the Treasury Gage arrived from Buffalo this morning. He denied that he had hurried to the capitol for the purpose of taking action in an appeal of the New York bankers who have asked him to increase the government deposit in their vaults for the purpose of relieving the money market. He declares that there is no danger of a stringency.

INCREASE THEIR CAPITAL STOCK

Burr Lithia Springs Company Promoters Make Changes at a Business Meeting Last Night.

The Burr Lithia Springs company promoters and a number of the stockholders held a business meeting last evening at the Myers house. The future prospects of the company were talked over and a change in the formation of the company as regards the capital stock was announced. It is the idea of the promoters to double the value of the stock and decrease the number of shares one-half so that in reality the amount of money raised will be the same.

A Chicago capitalist has agreed to take all of the stock not subscribed by local capitalists and at his request the capital stock will be made 200,000 shares at $1.00 per share and the company incorporated on this basis.

At first the company will sell but 50,000 shares at fifty cents each, which will give them a working capital of $25,000. Of this $12,000 will be paid on the land account, six will be used to build the bottling works, purchase the necessary supplies and pay salaries for the first six months, $7,000 will be expended on advertising and office expenses.

It was also decided that 200 acres of land was all that was necessary for the purposes of the company. This reduction will cut down the estimated indebtedness about $12,000.

Of the stock 20,000 shares will be used in part payment of the land and springs and $30,000 will be left in the treasury for future use.

General Superintendent Ashton of the Northwestern was in the city today and looked over the grounds adjacent to the Evansville cut-off in regard to putting in a side track for the bottling establishment.

The promoters have been quite successful in placing stock in this city, but would like to get more subscribers in order to have a large portion of the stock owned in this city. The bottling plant will be begun in about ten days, but nothing will be done this fall toward developing the grounds and building the hotel and sanitarium.

One-half the amount of the subscription is due when the company is organized and the balance in ten days. The company is now on a solid foundation and its organization and development will be pushed by the promoters.

Former Janesville Pastor

The Springfield Daily Republican has the following notice.

Dr. and Mrs. Lyman Whiting of East Charlemont had a narrow escape from a serious injury on Wednesday. They were driving home from Heath, and when going down a steep hill, the horse became restive, and broke one of the reins at the bit. The animal then leaped down an embankment, overturning the carriage and occupants. Dr. Whiting succeeded in stopping the horse, however, and both he and Mrs. Whiting escaped with severe bruises and a bad shaking up. Dr. Whiting was compelled to go a mile for assistance before they could get started for home.

Dr. Whiting was pastor of the First Congregational church in this city in 1875 at the time the church was destroyed by fire. His many friends in this city hope that both he and Mrs. Whiting will recover from their injuries without any serious results.

Miss Phoebe Fish returned to her duties at J. M. Bostwick & Sons' store after a pleasant vacation of one month's duration. A part of the time was spent visiting friends at Oshkosh.

Eruptions

Dry, moist, scaly, tetter, all forms of eczema or salt rheum, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions proceed from humors, either inherited, or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation.

To treat these eruptions with drying medicines is dangerous.

The thing to do is to help the system discharge the humors, and to strengthen it against their return.

Hood's Sarsaparilla permanently cured J. G. Hines, Frank, Ill., of eczema, from which he had suffered for some time; and Miss Alvina Walter, Box 212, Algona, Wis., of pimples on her face and back and chafed skin on her body, by which she had been greatly troubled. There are more testimonials in favor of this great medicine than can be published.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Promises to cure and keeps the promise. No longer put off treatment. Buy a bottle of Hood's today.

The Elizabeth Campbell Mission band of the Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock.

On Thursday at three o'clock the primary class of the Presbyterian Sunday school will be given a trolley ride to be followed by a picnic supper in the church.

The Thursday evening prayer service at the Presbyterian church will be preparatory to the communion service on next Sunday. At the communion service members will be received into the fellowship of the church.

Next Sunday will be communion Sunday at the Congregational church and this service will be observed in the morning.

The subject of the mid-week meeting at the Congregational church will be: "What may be made of the prayer meetin' and how?" We will consider what makes a meeting helpful—what spoils it—how we can get good from it—what value it has in the life of the Christian and church and how we can make the most of our meeting this winter. The church committee will meet on Thursday evening after the prayer meeting.

The Loyal band of the Congregational church will hold its annual thank offering is looked for as also singing. Tea at six. All the young ladies of the church and congregation are especially invited to this meeting and will receive a cordial welcome. At this time all pledges will be due and it is hoped a large thank offering given.

Thank offering meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary of the Congregational church will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and promises to be one of unusual interest. Miss Cora Welton who leaves the state this week for Marsh college, Central Turkey, will be present and also it is expected that the state officers will be here to bid her farewell. A large thank offering is looked for as also the payment of all dues in order that the society will not fall behind its apportionment.

The Epworth League of the First M. E. church will hold their regular monthly business meeting of the First M. E. church Monday evening in the church parlors. Every member of the League is invited. Come and help us plan the work.

The regular monthly business meeting of the official board of the First M. E. Church will be held on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The W. F. M. S. of the First M. E. Church will meet in the church parlors on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock. The mite boxes will be opened at this meeting. Missionary tea from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. Everybody earnestly invited. Members of the society are asked to put into the boxes an extra ten cents.

After a two months' vacation the Junior League of the First M. E. church commenced holding regular meetings yesterday afternoon at four o'clock.

There will be a baptismal service next Sunday at the First M. E. church at the close of the morning service.

Threatening tonight; showers Wednesday.

DEGENERACY.

Prof. Starr of the Chicago University is reported as claiming in his judgment that the assassins of President McKinley are in all probability a degenerate.

Garfield's slayer was also considered a degenerate, as have been all slayers of kings and czars of Europe. This fact makes it imperative that we, as an intelligent people investigate the causes of this degeneracy, and try locating them to attempt their removal.

Loose and non-enforced marriage laws will have an influence on children which is anything but elevating. Brutalizing contests, such as prize fights, dog and cock fights tend even more to the lowering rather than the raising of the standard of enlightenment among future generations.

During the past month some half dozen negroes have been burned alive at the stake, with thousands to witness the horrible contortions and agony of a dying brute. The minutest details of these terrible tragedies have been published in every paper in the land, and those who could not assist in the savagery have gloated over the press report.

We teach our children the pioneer history of our country when the Indian was fighting a losing battle with the pale face; we picture to them the massacres of the early days, as something entirely out of the ordinary, which they are likely never to witness, and then turn to our paper with glaring headlines of the most revolting character, couched in language intended to arouse and feast the animal instincts that but for these influences would lie dormant until reduced to a minimum.

By constant excitement these baser instincts grow in strength and it is not long before they demand satisfaction by the sight of some form of brutality.

Such forces once inaugurated in a human being are easily transmitted from generation to generation until each succeeding child starts out in life a foundation of degenerate tendencies, equal to those of the parent after years of education.

We need not try to congratulate ourselves on completely outgrowing the instincts of the barbarian, when such outrages are practiced without let or hindrance in our enlightened south.

The one hopeful sign in this section of the country is that the better element in the south perceive that crime is not checked by such atrocious punishment. We loathe a contagious physical disease because of the fear of contamination, but fail to realize that there are moral diseases just as contagious and far more disastrous in their effects.

Presidents McKinley and Garfield have been shot by degenerate men, men in whom the brute nature predominated, and we are today harboring the influences that serve to feed such instincts and nurture them to their full fruition.

Banish the anarchists, and prohibit the degenerating influences of our civilization, then we have placed around our president a safeguard mightier than a cordon of infantry.

GOOD COMPANY.

The Oshkosh Northwestern, assuming the authority of dictator, is publishing a series of letters addressed to Senator John M. Whitehead. The paper accuses the Rock county senator of being the head and front, as well as the whole body, of the new republican league, and charges him with the success or failure of the movement.

It is perhaps well to remind the Oshkosh zealot, that Senator Whitehead is a broad shouldered man, with mental equipment to correspond. He has associated with him a class of conservative, level headed men, who, like himself, are not actuated by impulse, and who are not accustomed to assuming responsibilities to which they are not equal.

The trouble with the Northwestern is that it has mistaken the mission of the republican league, its narrow vision is so circumscribed that it sees only the immediate future, and places the success or failure of Governor La Follette beyond party success or perpetuity. Governor La Follette and his political ambitions are but an incident. The welfare of the party is of more vital importance than the personal ambition of any member of it.

The Northwestern is unable to discover the shoals upon which the party was drifting, but they were painfully apparent to a large and conservative element, who did not propose to sit with folded hands, and see the party meet with the same fate that deluged democracy.

Senator Whitehead is enrolled with this element and behind him is a loyal constituency that would lend courage and support sufficient to enthrone a man of smaller calibre.

Rock county is not revolutionary in thought, or populist in tendency. When the Northwestern attacks Senator Whitehead it attacks a strong hold of conservative republicanism.

Governor La Follette may succeed himself, that depends largely upon his own volition and ability to absorb a little good horse sense. But the republican party will live in the state long after his public acts become history, and the republican league will save it from the pitfalls that now endanger it.

DEFIANT.

The English are attempting to end the Boer war by the use of proclamations, which they hope will be more effective than rifles have been.

If the Boer generals were of the kind to be influenced by English proclamations, they would have given up long ago.

The threats being made now not only have no effect on the Boers, but to a certain extent they are to be regretted as being contrary to the laws of civilized warfare and a confession of weakness.

The Boers have refused to surrender after the first threat and now a second threat has been telegraphed from the war office, which if enforced will result in visiting the sins of the guilty on the guiltless in many cases.

The English should be well enough acquainted with the Boer by this time to realize that threats and intimidation will never accomplish what force has failed in.

MANCHURIAN TROUBLES.

The massacres reported from Manchuria are probably of Russian origin. We have not yet forgotten the Amur massacre of a year ago, which the Russian papers claim was the result of a misunderstanding.

Two hundred peaceable Chinese have been killed, either intentionally or as the result of another Russian mistake.

These mistakes are too frequent and too serious to be forgotten by those interested in the welfare of China.

China has shown her willingness to sign the protocol and punish all the offenders against the missionaries from the powers.

These Russian troubles in Manchuria, coupled with the fact that not one of the twenty regiments now in that province have orders to return to their forts, go a long way toward proving that the eastern question is not yet settled.

THE SPIRIT OF ANARCHY.

The press of the country is denouncing anarchy in vigorous terms and public sentiment is thoroughly aroused. The New York Sun publishes the following editorial, which covers the ground so completely, that it is well worth a careful reading:

The man Czolgosz who attempted to assassinate the president at Buffalo, and succeeded in wounding him so dangerously, may or may not be the emissary of a particular group of anarchists; but he is unquestionably the representative and acted as the instrument of a spirit of anarchy which is present in modern society and menaces the civilization of the world. Its violence is not directed against any individual ruler or executive head of a state, good or bad, beloved or hated by his people, but against government of itself, against our social system as it has developed in natural and logical order.

This spirit of savage resistance to the working of a law of human development as it is benign, manifests itself in the beginning in futile attempts to run counter to the irresistible current of human progress, and to provoke rebellion against social conditions which can be improved and uplifted by its operation alone.

The sentiment which would set labor against capital and destroy fidelity to duty in the employees, is a servile and despicable impulse, which would turn the servant into an implacable enemy of the master, always free to assail his interests and wantonly destroy his property, is the prolific mother of that savage spirit of anarchy which inspired the attempt to assassinate the most universally beloved president, this republic has ever had. We do not even except Washington, for against him was hurled the greatest violence of malevolent detraction; nor Lincoln, down to his death so steadily assailed by malice and ridicule.

This attempt at assassination, however, was not made because of any enmity against McKinley individually, for such enmity does not exist; his character makes it impossible. The impulse that fired the shot came from the spirit of savage vindictiveness against the civilized government and civilized society and the law and order which Mr. McKinley represents.

The cowardly assault was only the extreme and concrete manifestation of a feeling of ferocious hatred of a resistless law of human development which Christian clergymen, even from the higher places, besides notorious political carvers to popular passions have been making themselves conspicuous of late by stimulating, apologizing for, and condoning, for which they have been seeking to provoke sympathy as a reasonable resentment. It is a spirit of malevolence, of destructiveness, of envy, hatred and malice and all uncharitableness. In its blind fury it would throw down and trample upon every monument of civilization and scatter and burn up the accumulations of treasure and beauty civilization has made and is making.

That is the sort of feeling which a whole school of journalism, spawned of recent years, is ostensibly working to kindle into passionate violence. We print elsewhere an article from the founder of this school which makes no pretence of disguising its sympathy with assassination, as a proper means of venting malignity against the order and laws of society.

Among the candidates for Mayor of New York recommended by a pretentious clique of social reformers to the sobriety, decency and piety of that town is also a man whose only title to consideration is that he has abetted this school of thugs and been its apologist.

These may seem harsh words to use while the gracious and forgiving and self-forgiving William McKinley lies painfully contending with death, but they are words which must be spoken at this time, for it is time when their truth and the obligation to utter them will best be recognized by the social elements upon which the preservation of civilization depends.

The Chicago Journal, in a strong editorial, declares that yellow journalism is largely responsible for the attempt to assassinate the president. That Hearst with his three publications is doing more to poison weak minds, and stir up strife on account of class distinction, than all other causes combined. It would be well for the country if this class of papers were regulated by a rigid press censor.

Waukesha Freeman: When it comes to a real genuine case of harmony, commend us to the democratic party of Wisconsin. The idea that there is any danger of the un-terrified carrying the Badger state is as preposterous as anything can well be.

Supt. Atkinson has reported the arrival of a smaller number of teachers from America for Manila than was expected. Probably this is accounted for by the fact that so many couples were made one, on the way.

All departments in Cuba seem to be progressing rapidly except the constitutional convention which is in a muddle over representation. However, all attempts to nullify the Platt amendment have failed, which is a good sign.

The Young Turks in Paris may yet be the power that will compel the Porte to settle with France. He must watch them and without a representative their surveillance would be difficult.

Gov. La Follette's favorite byword is said to be "O shades of Pingree."

PRESS COMMENT.

Council Bluffs Nonpareil: If anarchists cannot be barred out they should be barred in.

La Crosse Chronicle: The new century is yet young, but it bears a red birth mark.

Racine Journal: The day will arrive in this glorious republic when for a governor to dictate appointment with the avowed object of adding to his own strength, will be to bring about his impeachment.

Hudson Star-Times: If the half-breeds really believe the other wing of the party, which they term the stalwarts, is ruthlessly pursuing their dubious champion, how like the irony of retribution it must seem to them in view of his unjust and merciless war upon Governor Scofield all through his recent public career.

Marquette State: The action of the Milwaukee Journal in habitually holding "populism" at everybody of whom it doesn't approve sounds very much like the exclamation of a lunatic who has gone to seed on some particular idea.

Populism is always labeled and the Journal is familiar with the trade mark.

Marquette Eagle: The difference between the half breed and stalwart elements is the difference between close communion and open communion. You can go to the La Follette meeting house if you want to, but you can't partake of communion unless you subscribe to the innermost thoughts of the preacher's creed. You are welcomed into the stalwart republican fold and will have as much to say as if you were at a Quaker meeting.

Business Changes Hands.

Joseph Croak, who is well known in this city, has recently purchased the place heretofore conducted by T. F. Dermody, at 21 South Main street known as "The Bank." The store room is attractively fitted, and has a pool room in connection, as well as a large card room in the rear. Robinson's ale and Schlitz's beer, both bottled and draught, will be sold. Mr. Croak will be pleased to meet his friends.

Mrs. Ellen Murphy Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ellen Murphy was held this morning at 9:30 o'clock from St. Patrick's church, the Rev. Dean E. M. McGlinn officiating. The services were largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends, and many floral tributes were made.

The interment was at Mount Olivet cemetery and the pall bearers were Hugh M. Joyce, Patrick Lillis, John Boylan, Michael Furry, Patrick Joyce and Michael Madden.

General Superintendent R. H. Ashton of the Northwestern, and R. A. Cowan, superintendent of the Madison division, were in the city this morning and in company with F. J. Tucker and F. H. Wachsmuth, visited the point on the Evansville cut-off where the slide track for the Burr Litch Springs is to be located. They decided that it would be all right to put in a track at this point and one will be constructed at once.

OLD MILWAUKEE SETTLER IS DEAD

JOHN B. MERRILL, ONLY BROTHER OF HIRAM MERRILL.

Passed Away at His Home in Milwaukee Yesterday Morning, of Hemorrhage of the Brain—Funeral Will Take Place Tomorrow Afternoon in the Cream City.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Merrill went to Milwaukee this morning called there by the death of Mr. Merrill's only brother, John B. Merrill, who died at his home on Astor street, in that city yesterday morning. The direct cause of this death was hemorrhage of the brain although he had been in feeble health for two years. Deceased was seventy-six years of age and was one of the prominent residents of Milwaukee where he had resided since 1837. He had been a vessel owner on the lakes for over half a century and was well known all along the lakes as well as in the community where he made his home for nearly sixty-five years. His personality was such as to attract friends in an unusual degree and he was universally esteemed as a man of integrity and a citizen of sterling qualities. The news of his death will be heard with sorrow wherever he was known.

John B. Merrill was born in Adams, Jefferson county, N. Y., December 11, 1825. He was a direct descendant of Nathaniel Merrill, who emigrated to New England in 1634. With his parents he came to Milwaukee in 1837. Mr. Merrill was married in 1854 to Miss Mary J. Porter of Milwaukee. His surviving family consists of wife and daughter, Miss Olive, and his adopted daughter, Mrs. P. A. Reegan of Boise City, Idaho. His only surviving brother is Hiram Merrill. The funeral will take place from the late residence, 626 Astor street, Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. The Rev. J. Beveridge Lee will officiate. Interment will be in Forest Home cemetery.

A FAREWELL FOR MISS C. M. WELPTON

Missionary Meeting of Unusual Interest at the Congregational Church Tomorrow Afternoon.

A missionary meeting of unusual interest will be held by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Congregational church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and all ladies of the church and congregation and all who are especially interested in missionary work are cordially invited to be present. The meeting is a farewell for Miss Cora May Welpton, who is to leave her home in Northern Wisconsin this week for Central Turkey, where she will become one of the teachers in Marsh college. Miss Welpton is a thorough musician and her special work in Turkey will be the teaching of music. Miss Welpton some time ago determined to devote herself to missionary work and her coming trip to Turkey will be her initiatory trip to the foreign field.

Tomorrow's meeting has more than a local interest for it is in reality the state's farewell to Miss Welpton and the state officers will be present to bid her God-speed in her work. Miss Lucy Walker of Milton, state president, and Miss Anna B. Sewell of Stoughton, state vice president, will be in the city and probably Mrs. Nelson of Beloit, who is state treasurer. Two of the state officers reside in this city, being Mrs. Robert C. Denison, state vice president, and Mrs. A. J. Hutton, who is state superintendent of the children's work. Both of these ladies will be present at the meeting. The local society is especially fortunate in securing such a meeting and all ladies who can possibly attend should do so. It will be the annual thank offering of the society.

MAYOR HOME FROM A LONG TRIP EAST

Mayor and Mrs. Victor P. Richardson are home from an extended visit in the east including the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo, West Point and other places of interest. They were at West Point when word was received that the president had been assassinated. The cadets had just marched out to drill when the report came.

It stated that President McKinley was dead and this report being immediately afterward confirmed, the cadets were dismissed and the drill was declared off. When the spectators learned that the report was a false one they regretted that the error had deprived them of seeing the parade at West Point, as it is a sight well worth seeing.

Rock County Telephone Co.

The putting in of an improvement to their switch board is making new trouble for the operators of the Rock County Telephone company, who have been for some time laboring under difficulties because of the noise and dust attending the rebuilding of the block where the exchange is located, the noise making it hard to hear well and the dust interfering with good connections. The improved switch-board will have small electric lights which will show at once a call on central, or a ring-off, and will remedy many troubles common to all telephone service in a busy office. But as the company has upward of 800 telephones in actual service, and many connections have to be broken in putting in the improvement, it has been impossible to avoid some confusion. The work on the switch-board will be finished this week, and the work on the building will soon reach a point where it will not interfere with the exchange.

In the meantime, if subscribers who have any trouble will ask central to note it on the book kept for that purpose, the manager will give it prompt attention.

DULUTH PARTY HAS RETURNED HOME

Excursionists Had a Good Time in and Around the Zenith City of the Unsalted Sea.

The special train bearing the excursion party from Duluth arrived in the city this morning bringing some very tired but highly pleased excursionists. The special left this city last Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, starting from Beloit and making four or five stops between here and Lodi for passengers. There were ten coaches on the train and they were all filled, nearly 500 people being in the party.

The excursionists included about fifteen people from this city among them being Mr. and Mrs. David Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Little, Mrs. Andrew Walker, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Harris, Dr. James Mills, Dr. J. F. Pember, John Kemmett, Al Kemmett, Chas. Stoller, Nels Carlson, L. F. Knipp, Herman Buchholz, Mr. Hyzer and F. A. Spoon of this city and Messrs. Barlow and Owens of Footville.

The excursion was conducted by the C. & N. W. R. R. company over their road and was rather in the way of an experiment, it being the first excursion train that the company has ever run from this part of the state to Duluth.

ST. PAUL AND CITY LIKELY TO AGREE

NEGOTIATIONS FOR SETTLEMENT OF PROSPECT AVENUE FEUD.

They Will Be Allowed to Put Tracks Across Prospect Avenue at a Grade to Their New Freight House Without Waiting For a Decision of the Supreme Court On the Question.

Negotiations are now under way that may lead to a settlement of the differences between the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad and the city of Janesville.

The city and the company have been at cross questions for some time in regard to the tracks crossing Prospect avenue to their proposed freight station. The right to cross the street has been tested in both the city and the supreme courts and Judge Slebecker's decision was in favor of the railroad. The city took an appeal from this to the supreme court which would delay the railroad doing any work on their freight depot until next spring.

With the idea of doing away with this delay the officials of the road and the city have talked the situation over and indications are that the road will be allowed to lay its tracks across Prospect avenue. If they will lay them on a grade and not depress the surface of the street.

An agreement of this kind will prove satisfactory to all concerned. The contractors are ready to go on and complete the station as soon as an understanding is reached.

COLORED GIRL IN THE COUNTY JAIL

Pearl Baker of Beloit, charged with Larceny, Locked Up in the Local Bastille.

Pearl Baker, a colored girl from Beloit, charged with larceny from the person, was locked up in the county jail last night. She will be taken to Beloit for examination on Friday.

District Attorney Jackson will appear for the state and Silas W. Menzies for the defense. She was arrested on complaint of Morris Cunningham of Beloit, who claimed she picked his pocket of $16. He was standing at the corner of State and Broad streets leaning on his wheel, watching the Salvation Army. He felt a hand in his pocket and looking around quickly saw the colored girl behind him. He asked her what she was doing in his pocket. He felt his pocket book still in his pocket, but on taking it out and examining it found $16 missing. He at once swore out a warrant for her arrest and the police soon had her and the money. Justice Booth held the woman for hearing next Friday. She was accused of stealing $16 during the fair, but denied it and tried to lay it onto her sister.

"LOVERS' LANE" AT GRAND TONIGHT

Successful Play in New York and Chicago, Will Appear Just as Presented There.

Clyde Fitch has written many popular plays, but his quaint portrayal of small town life, "Lovers' Lane," will be yielding him far royalties long after his "Climbers" and "Moth and the Flame" have been forgotten. The moral rustic drama, if deftly constructed, is like an investment in solid substantial securities. All that is necessary is to look after it and keep it up to the standard and then sit back and cut off coupons. Lovers' Lane will be seen at the Myers Grand tonight and a packed house is promised.

ELECT OFFICERS

BAPTIST CHURCH AT EVANSVILLE

Many Delegates from Janesville Attending the Annual Convention for This District.

Quite a number of the members of the Baptist church went to Evansville this noon to attend the annual convention of the Janesville association of Baptist churches, which opens this afternoon. The Janesville association includes the Baptist churches of Rock county and Green county and a large attendance of delegates is expected. Among those who will represent the local churches are Rev. Richard M. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Whiffen, Mrs. R. Brand, Mrs. O. J. Treat, Miss Kittie Stoddard, N. Dearborn and others.

The delegates will be entertained by the members of the Evansville church.

The opening session will be held this afternoon at two o'clock and one of the items of interest for the afternoon program will be the reading of the church letters. This evening there will be an address by Dr. Thomas. Tomorrow morning will be devoted largely to the Sunday school work and the afternoon to the state and foreign work. The young peoples' session will be held tomorrow evening with an address by Rev. Richard M. Vaughan of this city. The closing session of the convention will be held on Thursday morning at which time the annual sermon will be preached by Rev. J. T. Parsons of Clinton.

Harper Leased Nels Carlson Market.

It. B. Harper, the veteran meat market man, has leased the Nels Carlson market at 29 North Main street, and will open it for public patronage September 11th. A complete line of fresh and salt meats, together with the accessories of a first-class market, will be carried. Mr. Harper is well known and his old customers will be pleased to know of his re-entering business.

Fine Crawford peaches, bushel baskets, $1.25. Grubb.

DO NOT say, "Life Insurance is not a profitable investment."

How, then, does it happen that the foremost and far-seeing business and professional men of the country are carrying large amounts of investment insurance? Why does John Wanamaker carry $1,500,000 Life and Investment Insurance? Why did E. P. Allis, of Milwaukee, carry $450,000 on his life? The whole of this latter amount was paid to his executors within twenty days after his death, the Northwestern auditing $50,000 of it the day after proofs were received.

ROOSEVELT FEARS NO HARM

Vice President Goes About Buffalo Unattended.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Vice-President Roosevelt continues to go about Buffalo unattended and on foot with implicit faith that there are no more men of the Czolgosz type at large. He believes men of the fiendish ingenuity of Czolgosz are not to be lugged off by armed guards and that his own alert eye and quick, athletic readiness for whatever may come is sufficient protection for him. A Buffalo headquarters detective has been assigned to guard the Vice-President and follows him on a bicycle. As Colonel Roosevelt was walking up Delaware avenue to Mr. Milburn's house in the morning he passed an ancient negro raking leaves out of the grass between the sidewalk and the curb. The negro took off his hat and bowed low.

"Please, sir, Mr. Roosevelt," he said, "I'd like to shake hands with you, sir."

As he grasped the Vice-President's outstretched hand he added:

"Look out they don't get you, Mr. Vice-President."

"Thank you," said Colonel Roosevelt and started on.

Two men in overalls had stopped to watch his meeting with the negro, and as he turned to go on they stepped up to him, too, with their hands stretched out.

The Vice-President shook hands with them both and thanked them for their greetings.

Not Afraid to Meet People.

"Ain't you afraid when a fellow comes up to you in the street like this?" asked one of them.

"Not a bit of it, sir," replied Colonel Roosevelt, with all his usual energy of utterance, "and I hope the time will never come when an officer of this government will be afraid to meet his fellow-citizens in the street. The people of this country, all the people, are the guardians of the men they have elected to public office. If anything, the lives of the officers of the government are safer now than before that thing was done at the exposition the other day. Tell me," he asked, with a smile which showed his confidence that he would get a negative answer, "did it ever occur to either of you that violence would do any of our people any good?"

Says President Will Live.

The men shook their heads. "Have you seen the President this morning?" asked one of them.

"I have not seen him," answered Colonel Roosevelt, "but I know that he is getting better all the time, and I have not now the slightest reason to doubt that he will recover and very rapidly, too. He will be back at his duties at Washington before long."

"Thank God for that," said one of the workmen.

The Vice-President nodded his hearty approval and then walked on with Mr. Wilcox. He remained in the Milburn house a few minutes and came out with a broad smile on his face. He told all inquirers that he was fully satisfied that the President's condition was constantly more encouraging.

From the Milburn house the Vice-President returned to Ansley Wilcox's for luncheon. Secretary of War Root was at the luncheon, and the Vice-President and the Secretary sat together for a long time in the shaded veranda of Mr. Wilcox's house.

MAY PEN UP ANARCHISTS.

Federal Officials Seek Evidence of Conspiracy.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 10.—It is believed here that terror will soon demoralize the ranks of the Anarchists of this country, as everything possible will be done to punish to the full extent of the law every Anarchist who has been in the slightest way responsible for the attempted assassination of President McKinley. The heavy hand of Uncle Sam will be laid upon them, and if possible to prove a conspiracy the prisoners of this country will be full to overflowing with the persons whose chief aim in life is to overthrow organized governments and to assassinate the representatives of the people and the rulers of foreign nations. Emma Goldman, who is by the confession of Czolgosz responsible for the act of the Buffalo assassin, will, in all probability, be held as an accessory to the crime which he committed. Although she has not been placed behind the bars her whereabouts are known, and it would not be surprising if she were arrested at any moment.

Two Caught at Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 10.—Harry Gordon and Carl Nold, both well known Pittsburgh Anarchists, were arrested here at 2 o'clock p. m. on orders from Buffalo. Gordon is the friend of Emma Goldman, and she visited his house on Wylie avenue on Sunday, Sept. 1, and participated in a meeting of thirty-five Anarchists. There is a strong suspicion that the assassin of the president came to Pittsburgh with Goldman on that visit. She came here from Rochester, and on her way stopped at Buffalo.

A LITTLE REIGN OF TERROR.

Nine Chicago Anarchists Remanded to Jail on Suspicion.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—The police look off the velvet glove today. With hands of iron they grappled with anarchy. As men will do when the sword of authority is sharpened with rage, they inflicted wounds that seemed unnecessary to outsiders and were called brutal by the sufferers themselves.

Where the Fault Is.

Mrs. D. S. Brown, who lives near Woodside, Rowan county, made up a pan of dough before retiring, and set it beside the fire to rise. The next morning she put her hand under the cloth to feel of the dough and felt something move. She pulled off the cloth and found that during the night a king snake had entered her house and crawled into the dough pan. The sight almost threw her into hysterics. Mr. Brown heard her screams and soon killed the snake.—Norfolk Landmark.

In the dreary rain a patrol wagon came down Pacific avenue and backed up between the low, red Harrison street police station and the engine house next door. A policeman in uniform opened the door. Clean-shaven, stern-faced detectives in citizens' clothes piled out of the alley and made a passageway through the crowd of shabby levee loungers. Nine men, with intelligent faces and carefully dressed, were grabbed by the police and hustled through the alley to a cell in the basement. Nine men in one cell—seven more than the usual number.

But these men were anarchists and the police wanted them where they could watch them easily.

The Arrangement in Court.

Then word came from upstairs that Justice Prindiville had reached his courtroom. Attended, each man by a detective, the anarchists were taken up the dark stairway.

In the corridor policemen surrounded them and kept their friends back. The prisoners' dock was cleared of petty offenders. Capt. Colleran, in a rain bespattered black suit, carrying his gray soft hat and looking alert, marshalled the men before the magistrate.

City Prosecutor Carmichael, big and good-natured, gave place to Prosecutor John E. Owens, a short young man with masses of black hair. Justice Prindiville straightened the red flower in his buttonhole and called the names:

Abraham Isaak, Sr.

Abraham Isaak, Jr.

Hippolite Havel.

Henry Travaglio.

Clemence Pfuetzner.

Michael Roz.

Martin Rosnick.

Morris Fox.

Alfred Schneider.

Each answered "here" firmly but not defiantly.

Big Crowd Present.

Balliffs pressed the crowd away from the men. The packed courtroom was breathless. More still than it has been in six months.

Isaak, the elder, with his scatter-haired pompadour, his glasses and his bristly mustache, towered above his fellows. Havel, the Italian student, was crowded against the rail. His black eyes snapped.

"Give me room," he said.

Back of him was Pfuetzner, the calm-faced shoemaker, the friend of Lucy Parsons. The brown face of Travaglio with an eager look in the eyes, was looking over Pfuetzner's shoulder. They were all held in $3,000 bonds each to await news from Buffalo. The cases are set for Sept. 19.

There is no doubt that Leon Czolgosz was in Chicago during July, and that he associated with the anarchists under arrest at the Central station. His photograph—taken by the police authorities at Buffalo—has been positively identified by several of the Chicago "reds."

Experts Find Czolgosz Sane.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Leon F. Czolgosz was pronounced sane by the physicians who examined him late this afternoon at the request of the district attorney and in his presence. It is a peculiarity of this crime and criminal that the suggestion of insanity never has been taken seriously by those familiar with the man and the deed. For the protection of the prosecuting evidence the district attorney deemed it well to have an examination by experts made.

Budapest, Sept. 10.—Emperor Francis Joseph has closed the Hungarian diet. The speech from the throne was delivered at the palace, which was opened for the occasion.

Syrian Soldiers Kill Peasants. London, Sept. 10.—The peasants at Aleppo, Syria, recently destroyed the tobacco plant of the Regge Company as a result of a dispute concerning wages. The troops were called out and in the conflict which ensued three of the soldiers were killed, the peasants losing fifteen killed and twenty-eight wounded. The Governor of Syria notified the Porte that the only way to preserve order at Aleppo was for the Regge Company to come to terms with the peasants. The Sultan ordered the managing director of the company, M. Rambert, to make such terms, but Rambert refused to do so. The Regge Company is controlled by French and German capitalists who will demand compensation for the damage done the plantations. This will probably provoke another crisis.

Boers' System of Spies. Pretoria, Sept. 10.—Fockma and Kerkhoff, Hollanders, were court-martialed for having harbored spies at Pretoria. Mr. Lohman defended them. A feature of the trial was the frequent references to a certain person who was not named in the evidence. These trials appear to be gradually unfolding the fact that the Boers have had a good intelligence system in Schurvenburg, which is about six miles from Pretoria. It appears that this has been the principal station for the receipt of communications.

Kills Woman and Himself. Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 10.—Harvey Dwell, who shot and killed Mrs. Hanna Bornwasser at Covington, Ky., and then turned the weapon on himself, dying shortly after. Jealousy is given as the cause.

My heart and hand another claimed. His plea had come too late. It's over thus, with people without pluck and vim. Take Rocky Mountain Tea, don't get left again. Smith's pharmacy.

EDWIN BUCKRIDGE DEAD AT BELOIT

He Was Well Known as a Pedestrian and Won Many Matches Twenty Years Ago.

Beloit, Wis., Sept. 10.—(Special)—Edwin Buckridge died last night of Bright's disease, aged 45. He leaves a wife and two children. Mr. Buckridge enjoyed a national reputation as a pedestrian twenty years ago. May 1, 1878, he walked with La Chapelle for a purse of $50 a side and won. August 23, 1879, he competed with Henry Schnell in Rockford and won. March 21, 1879, at the exposition in Chicago in a field of nineteen starters he was second. He has been in a number of six day matches. He walked twenty-one matches in all and won nineteen of them. Mr. Buckridge was in the dairy and feed business in Beloit and was one of the oldest settlers of this county. E. R. Buckridge was born in Rochester, New York, on December 15, 1855. He attended school until about twenty years old when he took his father's place in the butcher business of Beloit.

Preliminary steps have been taken to build a steel bridge over Rock river.

The public schools opened in Beloit today with an enrollment of 2,025. The two new buildings under way are about completed.

40 YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE A GOOD TIME

Guests of Misses Ella and Sarah Sutherland Entertained at Christ Church Parish House.

About forty of the young society people enjoyed several delightful social hours as the guests of the Misses Ella and Sarah Sutherland last evening. The two young ladies were the hostesses at one of the prettiest dancing parties ever given in the city and entertained their guests in a charming manner at the Christ church parish house. The pretty dancing hall was made cheerfully homelike by a profusion of cut flowers, potted plants, cosy corners and seats hidden beneath an abundance of many colored pillows. The stage was transformed into an inviting retreat.

On the stage was the piano where Roy Carter presided, his talented fingers furnishing the music which was inspiration for the happy young people and every dance finding the floor well filled with the gracefully moving figures.

The party was chaperoned by Mesdames Q. O. Sutherland and G. G. Sutherland, mothers of the hostesses, and the comfort of the guests was well cared for in every possible way.

Freeport races tomorrow. Specially low rates on all roads.

No Italian Literature for Girls.

What is absolutely wanting to the completion of a girl's education in Italy is reading. There is no Italian literature for girls, and only the more fortunate, who have studied foreign languages read at all. As for the poorer classes, this privilege is denied them because books are expensive and circulating libraries unknown. A young lady is allowed to read pretty much what English and American girls read of light literature, provided it is strictly moral.—Marchesa Theodoli, in The Ladies' Home Journal.

Time for Tax Payers.

Tax payers are already settling their indebtedness to the city. City Treasurer Fathers now has the books and tax warrants and is ready to receive any money that may be paid in on this account. The taxes this year are somewhat higher than last. Last year they were seventeen to eighteen mills on the dollar at a one-half valuation, and this year it is from ten to eleven mills on the dollar at full valuation.

Copper for Electrical Industries.

The electrical industry of Germany, according to consular reports, consumes 40,000 tons of copper annually. Of this amount only 3,000 tons, or about one-thirtieth, are produced in the German empire.
